

Monday Morning Rewind – October 23, 2006

Good morning! Another work week begins and so does another church ministry year. On Sabbath we went to our compass (God's Word) and found a course heading in 1 Peter 4:7-10 to guide us.

"The end of all things is near. Therefore be clear minded and self-controlled so that you can pray. Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms."

This text, along with Matthew 28:19, 20, form the basis of our mission statement: "Praying, loving, and leading others to Christ." We believe that God's vision for our church family includes giving highest priority to 1) prayer, 2) loving each other, and 3) saving souls, with an emphasis on our own kids. YOU play an essential part in helping us accomplish these goals. Kuna is what we make it. Pray for your church family and ask God to show you how you can help make a difference in the coming year. And remember: "Do not ask the Lord to guide your footsteps if you are not willing to move your feet!" I'm willing. How about you? Blessings.
